

Community Engagement Specialist

Are you ready to make a meaningful impact and drive positive change in the lives of youth and communities? The Tobacco-Free Alliance (TFA) invites you to become an essential part of our team as a Community Engagement Specialist. As a forward-thinking non-profit organization, we're on a mission to empower the next generation to live tobacco-free lives, while addressing tobacco industry targeted marketing and health disparities.

Why Choose TFA:

- Play a pivotal role in shaping a tobacco-free future for youth and historically marginalized communities.
- Develop and execute strategic projects that directly combat tobacco and nicotine use, making a lasting impact.
- Collaborate with passionate youth, community advocates, and tobacco prevention coalition partners.
- Hone your communication, leadership, and advocacy skills.

What You'll Do:

- Work closely with our youth, school, and community partners to create and implement community interventions that drive policy, systems, and environmental changes.
- Train and collaborate with our youth partners, empowering them to become leaders in tobacco prevention and community advocacy.
- Develop and execute innovative project strategies that reduce tobacco initiation, use, and exposure, directly impacting the well-being of our communities.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Education: Bachelor's degree
- Experience: A minimum of one year working with youth, community organizing/policy advocacy, or community-centered initiatives (volunteer or paid).
- Skills: Strong communication, writing, and organizational skills. Proficiency in technology tools, including Google and Office products, and online communication platforms.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience in public health, using evidence-based approaches for policy, systems, and environmental changes.
- Ability to create effective educational and health communication products that resonate with diverse communities.
- Strong skills in public health data collection, research, and writing, demonstrating the ability to gather, analyze, and effectively communicate data-driven insights.

Employment contingent upon completion of criminal background check, MVR check, education verification and references.

Position Schedule: Full-Time; Monday through Friday; This position is hybrid with the ability to work flexible hours including some evenings and/or weekends.

Benefits: Salary Range: $50,000 - $60,000 / annually based on education, experience, and skills. This grant funded, full-time position includes a full benefits package.
